God's Word This Week

Lent 5

HIS HUMILITY, OUR HOPE! The events of Palm Sunday might not seem pivotal to our salvation. Christ sheds no blood on this day. However, Palm Sunday sets the tone for all of Holy Week. It perfectly illustrates that Jesus came to be the kind of king this world will never understand: one who conquers his enemies by surrendering to them, one who crushes his opposition by himself being crushed, one whose path to kingly exaltation begins with humiliation. This is the kind of King we have marching into battle as one of us and for all of us this week. As a result, we are drawn to him in faith rather than driven away in fear. This humble King is our only hope.

Adult Bible Study: Judges 8:45 AM Wednesdays & 9:00 AM Sundays

Join us as we examine one of the most turbulent and sin-filled times in Israel's history. Judges is full of murder, lawlessness, oppression, and immorality. Increasingly flawed 'heroes' are sent to deliver them. We'll discover as we wade through history that there is really only one true hero in Judges: God.

Special thanks to all who cleaned the church!

We thank all who helped with the deep clean Saturday here at church. The place always looks and smells so clean and wonderful after the work is done. We appreciate the service rendered in thanks to our God.

She received her teaching license from Marian University in 2015 and also completed her Master's Degree in Education in 2020. In addition, Kari completed her synod certification through Martin Luther College. Kari and her husband, Corey (both Winnebago Lutheran Academy graduates), have two children. She enjoys spending her time playing with her children, reading, playing piano, and playing volleyball.

Holy Week Devotions from MLC

Martin Luther College, our synods college for called workers, has once again made a Holy Week Devotional Booklet available, God's Suffering Servant. In these devotions, the prophet Isaiah introduces the Messiah as God's Suffering Servant. See that Servant in his hour of suffering—the pain and scorn heaped on him, the antagonism of enemies, and the faithlessness of friends. A few copies are on the information center in the Narthex. It's also available online. Find it by clicking MLC Seasonal Devotions under the devotions tab on our website.
