Meal Train for the Lindsleys

Kathleen went into the hospital on December 10 with a severe infection in the abdomen. After two days, surgery and a ventilator were needed to get her back on the right track. Most recently they are attempting to take Kathleen off of sedation and the ventilator once her breathing regulates. A neighbor has set up a meal train to assist Hannah and Alex as they scramble to get to work and the hospital these days. Should you wish to assist the link is provided. <https://www.mealtrain.com/trains/40evq7>

Merry Christmas from the faculty and staff of St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran

It is a distinct pleasure and privilege to serve our God together with all of you. May God bless the work He has set before us all as we labor in His vineyards together. Have a blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!
