God's Word this week: Transfiguration

The season of showing His glory to those He has called is coming to a close. We stand at the threshold of the season of His ultimate humiliation. But before we go down to the valley of the shadow of death, He gives us a glimpse of the glory which He hid so carefully even while He was revealing it. Lent is coming; hang on to the glory that soon will be covered in shame and washed with blood!

A Prayer Before Worship      Oh, Wondrous Type! Oh, Vision Fair #96:3,5
With shining face and bright array Christ deigns to manifest today
What glory shall be theirs above Who trust in His atoning love. O Father, with th' eternal Son And Holy Spirit ever one, We pray you, bring us by Your grace
To see Your glory face to face. Amen.

Stewardship Thought

The very fact that, though a sinner, God maintains you are close to His heart, is an unfathomable reality. What other possible response can you and I have than to join with all creation in hurling our praises to Him. In formal worship? Certainly. In our jobs and schooling too. In our relationships and personal time too. In our recreation and our finances too. What aspect of our lives has not been graciously blessed by Him and so deserves to be joyfully harnessed for Him? The simple answer? There is none. Let our grateful hearts pour forth our praise every day in every way. (Thoughts based on Psalm 148) From Stewardship by the Lectionary (a WELS resource)
