God's Word this week: Pentecost 7

Jesus preserves our faith even in the face of persecution. We have seen that the Christian suffers in the face of natural calamities and that he too must face death, both his own and that of those he loves. In circumstances such as these, Jesus abides faithful to His word. Now comes the suffering that is the result of our faithfulness to that Word, of translating faith into faithfulness. It is a suffering that is promised and that is most painful when it comes from those who have heard that word with us. Even in the face of such offense, He preserves faith in the Word, by the Word.

Prayer Before Worship May We Your Precepts, Lord, Fulfill (#458:1)

May we your precepts, Lord, fulfill
And do on Earth our Father's will
As angels do above, Still walking Christ the living way,
With all your children, and obey The law of Christian love.

Sunday School Teacher(s) Needed

We are looking for a teacher in our Preschool classroom for the upcoming Sunday School Year. While preschoolers can be a very active bunch, they are also a very rewarding bunch of kids. Love and affection often so freely given and the sheer joy of watching the little lights of learning turn on over and over again make it a worthwhile opportunity. If you would like to help let one of our pastors know.

Stewardship Thought

2 Corinthians 9:6-8

⁶ Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10:25
