God's Word this week: Pentecost 6

Last Sunday we saw that faith does not eliminate suffering from our lives. This Sunday we see that suffering includes even death. The unbeliever who has only tears and despair in the face of death vainly hopes in his fear that death ends all. The Christian clings to the one who has overcome death for us even when faced with death.

Prayer Before Worship Rise! To Arms! With Prayer Employ You (#455:2)

Jesus, all your children cherish, And keep them that they never perish
Whom you have purchased with your blood.

Let new life to us be given That we may look to you in heaven
Whenever fearful is our mood.

Your Spirit on us pour That we may love you more, Hearts o'erflowing;
And then shall we, From sin set free, Sing praise through all eternity.

Stewardship Thought

from Free to Serve
Forward in Christ July edition

“You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free, but do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh. Rather serve one another humbly in love” (Galatians 5:13). Can you see how a Christian looks at freedom differently? You're free to serve. Your life isn't about your preferences or your way, or your ones. Jesus gives you so much more! So, your life can be about humbly serving others in love. You're free to serve.

We could use more of that kind of freedom in America – and everywhere. Our world needs more Christians serving one another because of the freedom they have in Jesus. Our world needs more Christians willing to make themselves slaves to those around them, all with the goal of winning more people to faith in Jesus. Our world needs more Christians willing to sacrifice their time or preferences (yes, even treasures) to encourage and raise up others.

Brothers and sisters, you were called to be free. So, let's use our freedom to serve one another, humbly in love. And you'll find that it's great to be free, free to serve.
